Reference Letter

This is to confirm that Mr. Volodymyr Romaikin successfully participated in the QA Manual & Automation Tester training program from July 9, 2024, to February 5, 2025, and completed it with great success.

During this time, he consistently carried out his tasks with the highest level of commitment and to our fullest satisfaction. Mr. Romaikin is characterized by a high degree of responsibility, independence, and a structured approach to work.

As part of his training, he acquired in-depth knowledge of software quality assurance, test automation, and manual testing methodologies. His outstanding commitment, eagerness to learn, analytical skills, and structured problem-solving approach are particularly noteworthy. Mr. Romaikin demonstrated a quick grasp of concepts and proved to be highly proficient in the practical application of the acquired knowledge.

Among the skills acquired by Mr. Romaikin are:

✔ Manual Testing (test case development, test execution, defect analysis)
✔ Automated Testing (e.g., Selenium, JUnit, TestNG)
✔ Programming Languages (e.g., Python, Java, JavaScript)
✔ Test Management Tools (JIRA, TestRail)
✔ CI/CD Processes and Agile Testing

Furthermore, Mr. Romaikin demonstrated outstanding leadership skills while working on student projects. Due to his strong communication abilities, excellent organizational skills, and solution-oriented mindset, his teammates repeatedly elected him as the project manager. In this role, he successfully managed task coordination, time, and resource management, and ensured that all project goals were met efficiently and on schedule. Additionally, he effectively implemented Agile methodologies (Scrum, Kanban) to optimize workflows and enhance team collaboration. His ability to motivate teams and establish structured processes makes him a valuable asset in any work environment.

Mr. Romaikin completed his training with excellent results and consistently demonstrated outstanding performance. His dedication and technical expertise make him an extremely valuable candidate for any position in software testing.

I highly recommend Mr. Romaikin without reservation and am available for any further inquiries.

Sincerely

Marsel Sidikov
